Queensland Transport Liaison Report: No new information to report. Rod indicated he would present a written report to the AGM (copy included in CC News).

Australian Historic Motoring Federation: AHMF AGM planning is going well. If any affiliated club members or delegates wish to attend the AHMF as an observer they should contact Christine Stevens and arrange a place (space is limited).

Calendar of Events: Tom Lewis handed out an updated calendar of events and asked clubs to comment on any additions or changes required. Some changes made, updated copy distributed with these minutes.

General Business:

National Motoring Heritage Day: It was agreed last month that at this Combined Council meeting a committee would be formed to plan next year's NMHD events. Static display and runs to be considered. There was no commitment from any delegates or clubs to the establishment of a planning committee to help plan and co-ordinate and support state-wide activities for next year's NMHD. The Management Committee expressed their disappointment in the lack of interest from clubs in supporting something like the NMHD. ALL CLUBS ARE AGAIN ASKED TO CONSIDER COMMITTING TO WORKING TOGETHER TO DEVELOP PLANS FOR A BIGGER STATE WIDE APPROACH TO NATIONAL MOTORING HERITAGE DAY NEXT YEAR. Promoting the historic vehicle movement is the reason Combined Council exists, if affiliated clubs cannot get behind supporting and committing to help plan events like the NMHD then the question has to be asked why Combined Council exists.

SIVS Action - Further approaches to QT re Review 4 Clubs have written to CC opposed to taking any additional action now. One club supports taking action on the week-end use proposal and requiring SIVS owners to retain club membership. At the meeting, other delegates expressed views that their club wanted some action taken. However, only 5 of 90 plus clubs have written to Combined Council and advised what, or if any further action Combined Council should take regarding the current SIVS rules. Clubs are again asked to write and express a view.

Combined Council Rally No clubs have yet applied to conduct the Combined Council rally in 2011. All clubs are asked to consider hosting the Rally in 2011. The Roma Club has written and offered to host the Combined Council Rally in 2012 over the Easter weekend. Some delegates expressed concern regarding both the cost and availability of accommodation in Roma when the Easter Country Festival is on. The Secretary was asked to acknowledge Roma's offer to host the Rally in 2012 and ask the Roma Club if it would consider retaining the traditional June long week-end and run the event in 2011. The Secretary was also asked to request Roma Club to provide indicative accommodation costs and an indication of accommodation availability. Albert Budworth advised that the RACQ would provide $2,500 of naming rights sponsorship for the rally if it were held in 2011 (RACQ has offered sponsorship for the next 3 years).

Country Meeting Only one club has responded to the issue of potentially holding a country Combined Council meeting. Clubs are again asked to advise Combined Council if they see any value in holding a meeting in the north or centre of the state. If country clubs consider there is some value in having a Combined Council meeting in Rocky or Mackay so their members can attend, please inform the Combined Council.

HMCCQ Thanks The HMCCQ moved a vote of thanks to Combined Council for supporting its submission to QT on motorbike safety.

Public Liability Insurance The management committee recommends all clubs keep their PLI with Austnet at least for the next year.

NOTE – Next Bi Monthly General Meeting: - Thursday 25th September 2008

Meeting Closed at 9.20 pm.

CC NEWS..... July 2008

Presidents Report to the AGM

Another year has past and it is again time for our AGM

This has been the first full year with general meetings every second month and it seems to be working well, the plus side of this is the committee has a meeting every other month and deals with minor matters quickly and refers larger items to a general meeting.

The committee has been committed to reducing the costs of mailing by ensuring as many delegates and their club executive supply their email address's to speed up communication and reduce costs, this can only benefit us all in the long term. The Combined Council Rally was a huge success and the Bayside Restorers Club have certainly set a high standard for others to follow and I congratulate the organizers.

The much waited for SIVS review was finally finished and after all the rumors of changes, nothing has really changed. I think that even though we have reasonable regulations we should continue with submissions for weekend use and expanding the definition of use for family to include other family members and not just children and grandchildren.

This year we are hosting the AHMF AGM in Queensland and a lot of preparation has been done by Christine, I am sure the new committee and delegates will help her to make this a memorable occasion for the interstate representatives.

I wish to thank the committee for their effort for the year, as we all know the hardest two workers are the Secretary and Treasurer and without them we would not function.

I would like to thank all the delegates for their attendance and input at meetings and Cheryl for her work with supper and I wish the incoming committee success in the next term.

Summary of CC - QT Interaction 2007-8

During the year Queensland Transport (QT) conducted a review of the current Queensland SIVS (Special Interest Vehicle Scheme) registration guidelines. A major part of this review was the assessment of interstate 'club vehicle registration' systems as well as consultancy with user groups including the Queensland Combined Council of Historic Vehicle Clubs (CC).

Most Queensland clubs recognised that SIVS registration was a fairly liberal system that allowed a limited yet reasonable use of our vehicles for a reduced registration cost. There was apprehension as to whether QT would further restrict the current requirements.

CC had over the previous 5 years submitted 16 significant proposals for either reducing costs or extending the use of the scheme.

On 14th May this year QT & CC met to discuss the review. QT informed CC that the review had been completed and that QT's internal recommendations for changes had been signed off.

QT did not approve our weekend use proposal nor did they agree to adopt our proposal that SIVS operators "must" retain club membership for SIVS registration.

QT has increased the penalties for misuse of the scheme. QT has agreed in principle to permit SIVS registered vehicles to be driven to new locations when the operator changes addresses. QT also agreed to permit historical societies to SIVS register vehicles.

QT indicated that in the future it may give consideration to reviewing the rolling 30 year age requirement for SIVS vehicles. QT will monitor the impact of the age requirement over the next few years.

QT advised that it is planning to issue an information notice to all SIVS vehicle operators advising of the minor changes to the scheme.

The result of the SIVS review conducted by QT has been discussed by CC delegates and executive and generally it is acknowledged that the current Queensland SIVS system will be slightly enhanced by the changes.

CC recommends that clubs should be watchful of any potential misuse of the SIVS because the rolling 30 year rule now (in 2008) makes a whole new generation of vehicles eligible for SIVS registration. This new generation of 'relatively modern' vehicle came on to our roads from around 1978. The possibility exists for people to just join a club (for one year) to get the cheap registration and clubs are encouraged to monitor this practice and report any instances to CC. CC plans to work in partnership with QT on this issue to ensure the system is not abused and for the greater good of the historic vehicle movement.

CC has received reports of problems being experienced in registering newly restored vehicles which have been unregistered for many years, in some cases 20 or 30 years or more. Our experience shows that QT staff in various locations are prone to interpreting the re-registration guidelines differently, resulting in conflicting guidance and significant delays for some people attempting to register such vehicles. CC is working towards getting standardised practices in place and establishing relationship protocols within QT in order to quickly resolve such issues. Upon receipt of full details, CC will promptly take issues to QT on behalf of affiliated clubs.

AHMF AGM

Queensland will host the AHMF AGM this September. Delegates from each of the state bodies will gather in Brisbane in September to discuss issues relating to the historic vehicle movement. If any club wants to send an observer to this meeting contact Christine Stevens 32606197 (places limited).
